1967 - DeAndreian
De Andreis High School
Saint Louis, Mo. Volume 20

As we pass through the corridors of time, we shall always remember the teachers and friends we must leave behind.

We shall continue to put our trust in God, and accept the challenges that lie ahead. We will endeavor through hard work, faith, and prayers to make this world a more secure, united and peaceful place for generations to come.

Many years have come and gone, and many changes have been brought about by the modern times.

We live in a new world of computers and of technical advances. New and scientific methods have been introduced to create better results in known fields. The modern times have changed De Andreis from a run of the mill high school to a futuristic one.

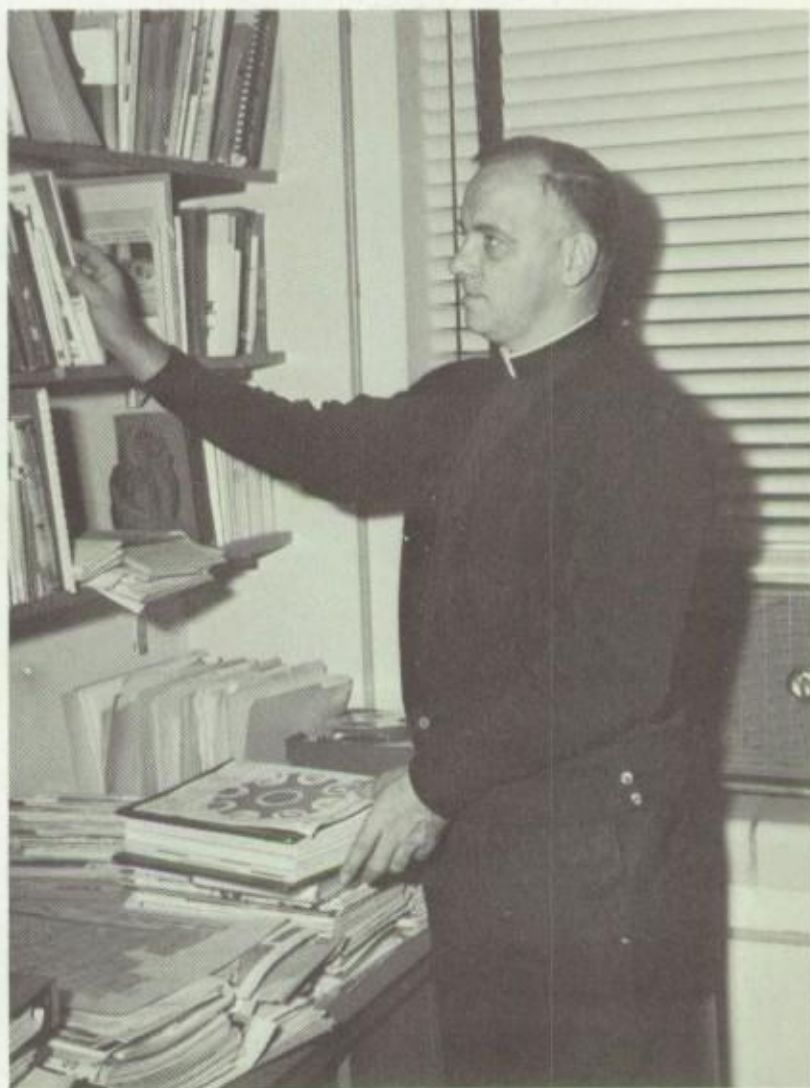

Good luck Merg,
Aim high.

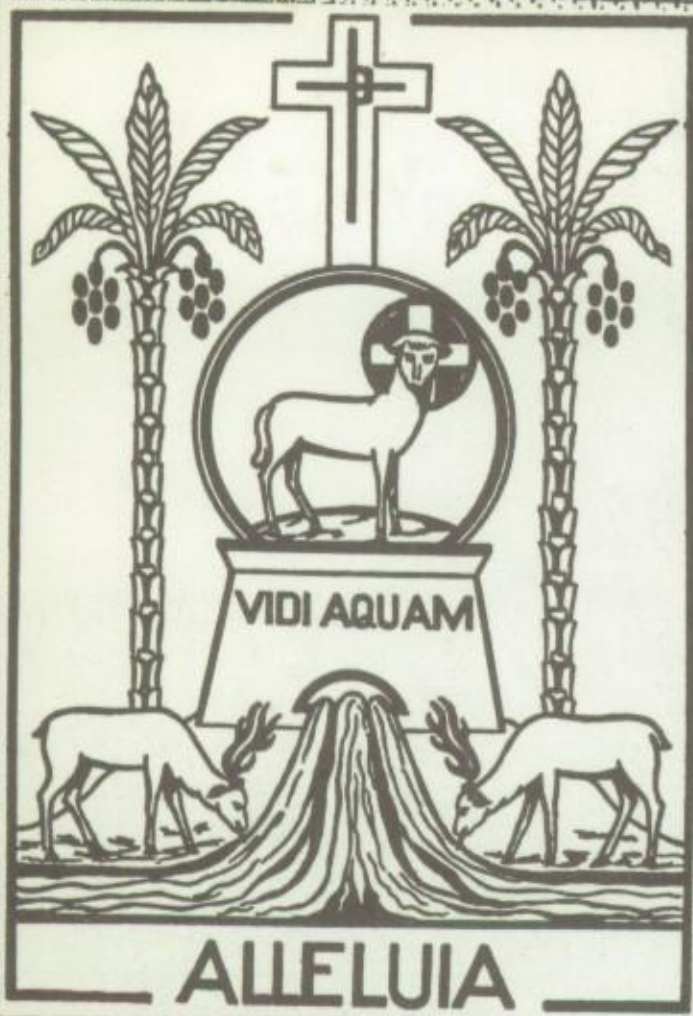

Joe Mullen

Dedication

We, the yearbook staff, wish to dedicate the 67 "De Andreian" to Father Thomas J. Mullen. In recognition of his service and leadership to De Andreis in her three years of change. During his years as administrator, he has worked to promote the educational growth of De Andreis. It was Father Mullen who originated the Moduler system at D. A.; and it was through his devotion and leadership that made the Moduler system a success.

Felix de Andreis

Father De Andreis was born December 13, 1778 in Demonte, Italy. As a young cleric Felix de Andreis was a lecturer of theology in Rome. Father De Andreis was endowed with eminent intellectual ability and remarkable supernatural gifts.

Father was sent to America and became the first Vicar-general of St. Louis. Later he became the Superior of the Vincentians in the United States. Through his prayers and unceasing labors he converted many souls in Christ's name.

We are asked to pray for his beatification which, we hope, will lead to canonization and give us a saint as the patron of De Andreis.

PRAYER FOR BEATIFICATION

O Lord Jesus Christ, Savior of the world, who for the conversion of the nations and to bring all men into the one fold and under the one shepherd, hast founded Thy Church and established the holy order of Thy priesthood, and who in Thy beneficent Providence hast been pleased to call to this same holy priesthood thy faithful servant Felix de Andreis and to endow him with so many apostolic gifts and virtues, deign, we beseech Thee, Most Gracious Lord, to glorify this same Felix de Andreis by signs of Thy infinite power, manifested in his favor, so that in the judgment of Thy holy Church, he may be found worthy to be enrolled among Thy saints.

The Best Dressed Student

Robin and His Hoods

Robin Hood

Leader of the Merry Band and the best archer in all of Merrie Olde England. He robbed from the poor and gave to the rich.

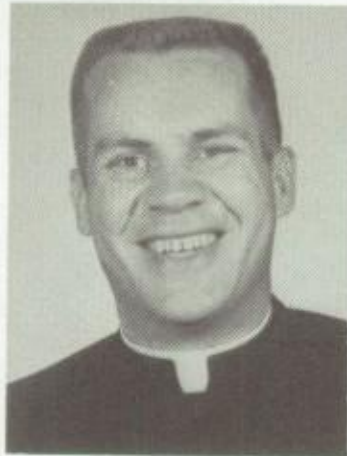

Hundreds of years ago, in Merry Olde England, there arose a need for a group of stalwart, brave men to fight corruption and evil. Such a band was that of Robin and his Hoods. They fought the corruption and evil of their day by extreme means----stealing!

Below are Robin, the four Hoods, the nasty villains, and the brave, we think, King Richard.

Friar Tuck

The well rounded friar who was the life of the party. As skilled with the chicken leg as with the sword.

Little John

Little in name and brain only, he was the most loyal of the band. He had the strength of six squirrels.

Sheriff of Nottingham

Scourge of England and all around around fink; he stole candy from children, among other dastardly deeds.

Richard the Lion Hearted

He was king of England and went off to the Crusades. His deeds were fee and far between.

Maid Marion

Robin's side-chick and the fairest lass on the Isle. She gave up her riches to follow Robin Hood. Why?

Allen of Dale

The minstrel in the merry band, he was the rock n' roll singer of his day. His most famous ballad is "The Last Train to Nottingham".

Prince John

Brother of Richard and nastier than the Sheriff of Nottingham. He was a true dishonest John.

ATHLETICS

Dear Lord, in the struggle that goes on through life I ask but a field that is fair. A chance that is equal to all in the strife
the courage to do and to dare.

And if I may win, let it be
by the code with my faith and my honor held high. But if I should lose, let me stand by the road and cheer as the winner goes by

After starting practice in early August, the football team was ready to ramble for another season. Looking at the team we see that they worked hard and fought bravely using all their initiative.

Defense

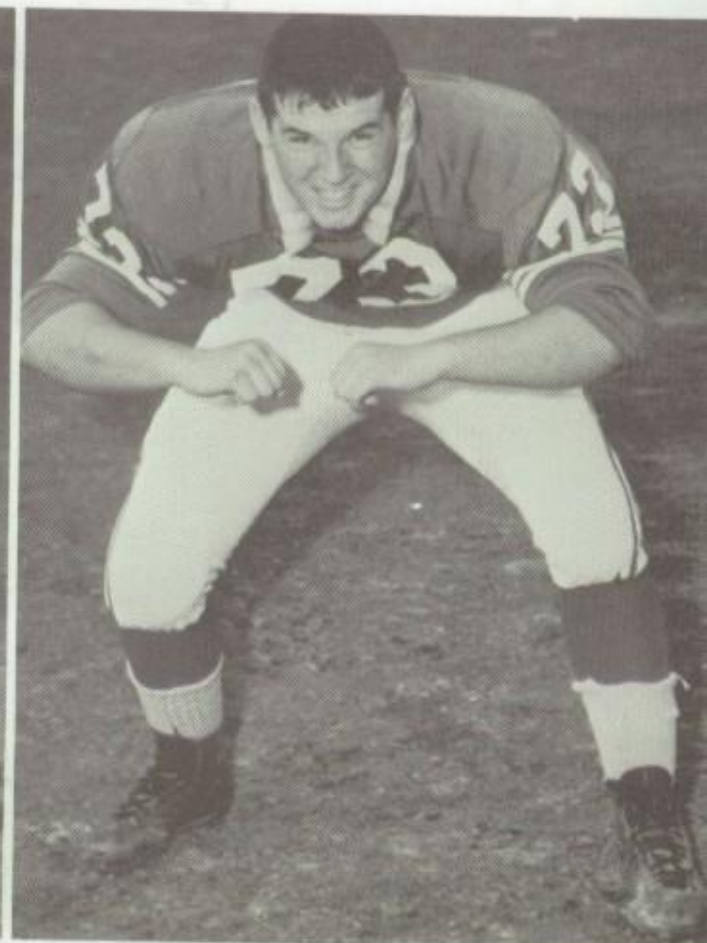

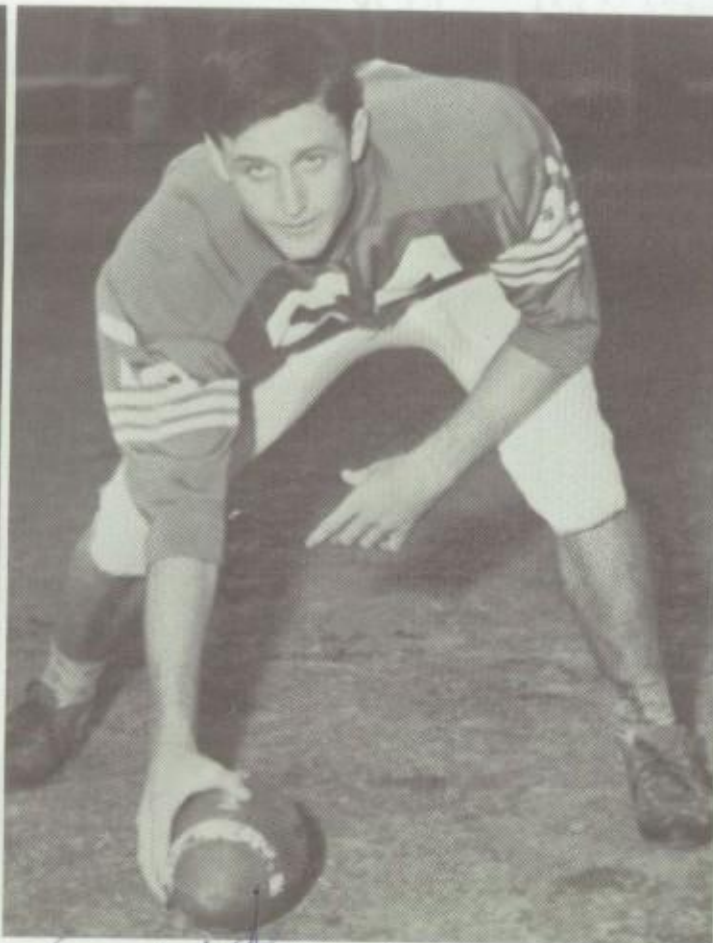

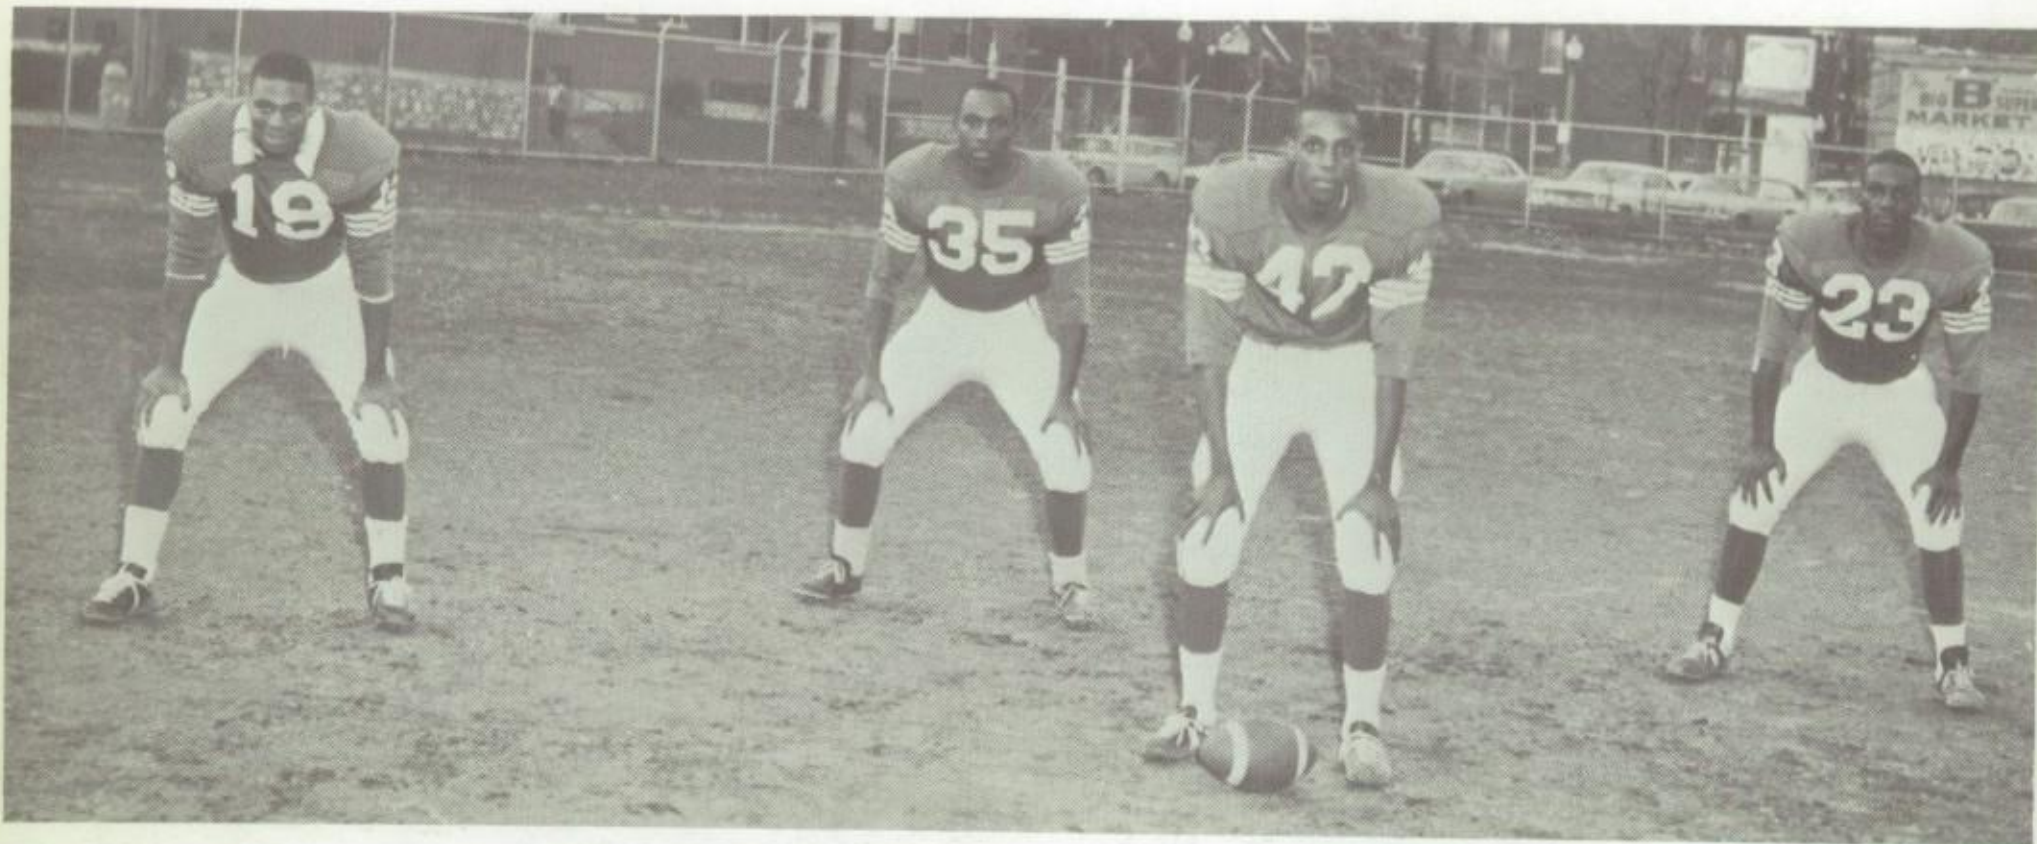

The strongest phase of the 1966-67 Varsity Football team was their defensive game. Many times when their offense could not move the ball, their defense prevented their opponents from moving the ball. The eight line men below therefore must be called the invincible eight.

Speech Club

STANDING: G. Zachery, H. Wilbanks, D. Burt, D. Pollihan, W. Davis, J. Burke, M. McClannahan. SEATED: Mr. Tucci.

The purpose of the Speech Club is to encourage DeAndreian students in the club to express themselves vocally in numerous ways: radio, original, non-original, and extemporaneous. In three speech meets sponsored by the Catholic Interscholastic Speech League, the speech team has come to realize its goal and produce future members of society who will speak out and make themselves heard.

The Newspaper, under the direction of their new moderator, Mr. Barrett consists of three major sections: the front page, the news feature and the sports page. The staff which consists of six members didn't put out a publication this First Semester because of the lack of preparation and members. Several additions will be printed though during the next Semester Period.

3 Ages of D.A.

We don't know where we're going Mary, but with your help we hope to get there.

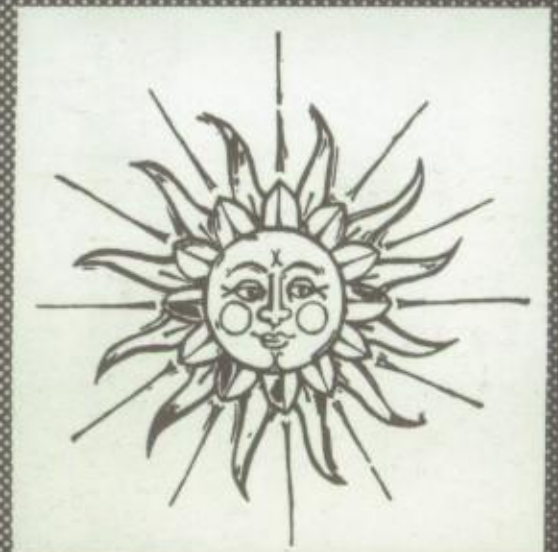

The men poured the foundation in and began the arduous task of building DeAndreis. It was hard work, but they had a goal.

We look back upon them from our twentieth anniversary, and realize that we are closer to that goal.

The year was 1946, one year after the greatest World War in the history of man.

1 Infancy

2 Childhood

THE MIDTERM

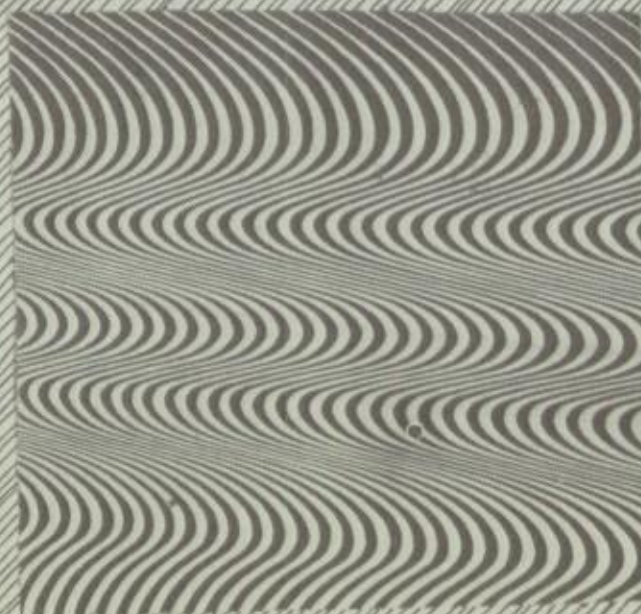

Progression proceeds rapidly after the first have paved the way. The generations in the middle must enlarge from the base of birth. Growth is their cry, and grow they do.

3 Adolescence

We have taken aim, Mary. We still are not there, but now we are nearer.

The new age is here, and we have taken it under our wing as a needed companion. Today is lived for that all important tomorrow.

Man for All Seasons

It is the belief of the De Andreian Staff that a yearbook has many functions. To record the events of the school year, to salute the graduating class and to give to them, and to all students, a book they can look on and remember. We also believe that we should give recognition to those individuals who have excelled in and beyond the tasks that have been entrusted to them. This is the reason that the yearbook staff decided to choose, once again, "A MAN FOR ALL SEASONS" award.

To qualify for this award the person must be hard working, dedicated selfless, set a high standard in his work and life and have concern for his fellow human beings. These are high standards in anyone's book or for that matter in anyone's life. The person's position in life is of little importance, whether he be a pope, a politician, teacher, or student, he must first be true to the above mentioned ideals.

With these ideas in mind the members of the De Andreian Staff choose Fr. Eugene Sinz as our "MAN FOR ALL SEASONS." Fr. Sinz has become an important figure not only in our school, but also in our diocese as well. On several occasions he had to take a leave of school because he was asked to represent the Cardinal in out of town activities. He also has been involved with a Job Corps center, that opened in St. Louis during October.

Fr. Sinz has tried to increase the number of activities, that the students can participate in. He tried to get a variety of interesting guest speakers for our assemblies. He even started a new program this year, in which recently released movies that have been judged good or that have some educational value, are brought to school and shown before the student body. We are grateful to Fr. Sinz for the concern and dedication he has given to us and De Andreis.

Teacher of the Year

The Teacher of the Year Award, more precisely named the Blessed Phillippine Duchense Award, was established to recognize the great service that lay teachers are rendering to Catholic schools. Nominees are sent in by the archdiocesan school office and each Catholic school. The nominees are judged on teaching, academic background, and administration.

The Teacher of the Year Award was presented to Mr. Charles Hamann, principal of DeAndreis High School. There was an awards ceremony at Maryville College, where the award was given to Mr. Hamann and where other distinguished members of the St. Louis community were also recognized.

The spirit of the modern world and Church in the late sixties is exhibited by Mr. Hamann. Under his direction, DeAndreis emerged into the new light of functional education. The module system was adopted and put into use this year. Although it is too early to scientifically evaluate the impact of the new system, a change in the student body has come to the attention of Mr. Hamann who remarked, "This system has caught the imagination of the students and inspired them to truly apply themselves." Mr. Hamann plans to change the physical structure of the school in the coming years. What he is striving for is a functional architecture; a school that matches the freshness of the ideas it houses.

for the future.*

Charles Hamann
